

APPLICATION HISTORY
HECLA SHAFT MINE
UNION CARBIDE CORPORATION
ACT/037/043

December 8, 1978	The Division received an initial mine plan. Inspection of the site was performed.
December 14, 1978	Tentative aproval for the mine was requested from the Board.
December 19, 1978	Another revised plan was received for a proposed 35.5 acre facility.
December 20, 1978	The Board granted tentative approval for the mine plan and operation. Publication ensued during the remainder of 1978. Union Carbide was notified.
February 5, 1979	Notification was sent to Union Carbide that the surety arrangement was agreed upon by the Board.
February 23, 1979	A Mined Lands Reclamation contract was signed by the Board.
February 14, 1979	The Division answered concerns of DWR.
February 20, 1979	The Division received a copy of the MR-8 form.
August 1, 1979	The Division inspected the minesite.
August 8, 1979	The Division requested information on mine plans.
December 15, 1980	The Division received the 1979 progress reports.
January 2, 1981	The Division requested the 1980 Annual Report.
March 4, 1981	The Division received the reports.
May 18, 1982	The Division inspected the minsite and requested an updated information packet on July 6, 1982.
July 8, 1982	A memo was drafted documenting the above inspection.
July 13, 1982	The Division again inspected the site.

May 2/79 - DWR notifies Union Carbide of final approval of Reclamation Contracts

Hecla Shaft History
Page 2

July 28, 1982 A letter was sent to Union Carbide concerning revegetation test plots.

October 15, 1982 The Division received copies of soils analyses from the Hecla Shaft waste rock.

November 5, 1982 Soil treatment and revegetation recommendations were sent to Union Carbide.

January 20, 1983 The Division received a notice from the Department of Health that radionucleide values were being exceeded at the Shaft's ponds. An application for a wastewater system was requested.

February 18, 1983 Union Carbide answered the Health Department's letter with general information.

March 17, 1983 An updated map and annual report for 1982^{and '81} were sent to the Division.

April 6, 1983 The minesite was inspected along with the Health Department. Suspension of the operation began in December of 1982.

TNT/lm